Section 1 - School Profile Statement

Ringwood Heights Primary School is located in the leafy green suburb of North Ringwood. The school is situated 1 kilometre north of the Ringwood Hub. Ringwood Heights enjoys a well-maintained natural environment which features carefully planned and furnished classrooms, modern age appropriate play equipment, quality recreational areas, including the $2.5 million dollar multi-purpose facility completed in 2013. The school is situated in a safe and peaceful residential setting and is directly adjacent to natural parklands.

The school consists of a mix of experienced and less experienced staff, with the frequent employment of graduate staff in recent years. The professional partnership with University of Melbourne Graduate School of Education has helped to facilitate and secure the employment of highly qualified and competent graduates.

There is a conscious effort to select teachers and Contract Replacement Teachers who fit with the school's approach to teaching and learning and student management. The teachers' shared philosophy contributes to consistency and continuity and is seen in their strong working and personal relationships and commitment to continuous improvement.

The background characteristics of our student population include an SFO of 0.31 and SFOE of 0.25, an EAL enrolment of 5%, 1% ATSI students and 3.2% PSD enrolment. Most families at the school have a tertiary or trade qualification and the socio-economic status would reflect a relatively high level in comparison to the surrounding Ringwood area. The school continues to have a low percentage of racial diversity but recent enrolments reflect a small degree of change in this area. Our enrolments reflect a small number of families who identify as Aboriginal or Torres Strait islanders, and a very low proportion of migrant and refugee families.

There is a high level of parent engagement across the school. Parent engagement is evidenced through their commitment to classroom involvement, excursion support, camps, and sport coaching as well as grounds management. The commitment to school committees has been strong over the years and Ringwood Heights continues to enjoy high levels of involvement to whole school programs.

The Parent Opinion Survey aligns with the state primary median over the last three-year period. Recent Student Attitude to School Survey show high levels of student morale, learning confidence and connectedness to peers.

Ringwood Heights Primary School is a learning community that prides itself on having quality relationships across all sectors. At Ringwood Heights, we are committed to fostering a lifelong love of learning and we actively engage our students in a wide range of meaningful learning experiences, so that young people leave our school with the competencies needed to flourish in the constantly changing world.

Throughout our school programme, we provide opportunities for students to:

- Inquire, investigate, initiate and create
- Communicate in a variety of modes
- Work independently and interdependently
- Value others and accept responsibility
- Socially interact

- Be effective problem solvers
- Develop metacognitively

Ringwood Height's community values revolve around respect, honesty, cooperation, enthusiasm, initiative, caring, enjoyment and personal growth.

Our stated school values are: Creativity, Teamwork, Respect, Responsibility, Friendship.

They are displayed and referred to often by staff and students.

Multi-age classes contribute significantly to strong positive cross-age relationships between students.

Section 2 – Whole School Prevention Statement

We have a large number of programmes in place to support a positive learning environment. We offer challenging and creative learning environments that are conducive to cooperative experiences, consideration of student voice, open ended learning and shared celebrations and actions. Our learning and teaching environment (both physical and online) is inquiry based and promotes deep questioning and the opportunity for individual research into areas of interest. Our learning and teaching philosophy is whole school based and transitional processes between and within the school support this. Establishing classroom norms in each Learning Team at the commencement of each year sets up our values and shared beliefs and understandings for the whole school. A metacognitive “learning to learn” approach is embedded in our integrated inquiry units which are delivered over a two year cycle.

Through this approach our students explore:

- Aspects of positive learning
- Health and wellbeing
- And positive behaviours that support improved learning

Our student leadership programs include:

- SWPB Program –articulating our school values
- Peer support programme
- Buddies
- House Captains
- Arts Captains
- School Captains
- ICT/Sound Technicians
- Multi-age structures that support leadership

Student prevention/intervention programmes we offer at Ringwood Heights actively support safety student learning:

- Peer Support & Cross Age
- Kids Hope
- Social Skills Programs
- eSmart/Cybersafety

Outside agencies that support the positive learning environment include:

- Guidance Officer/Psychologist
- Speech Pathologist
- Chaplaincy
- Local agencies

Our out of school hours care program is delivered by OSHC Club and caters for up to 45 students after school and 25 students before school. This program actively promotes continued student engagement in their extended school day.

The physical environment of the school allows students to play freely throughout the 5.5 hectare property and the combination of play based activity and structured options allows students flexible opportunities to play in a safe and cooperative manner.

Through the attitudes to school survey, staff survey and parent opinion survey Ringwood Heights Primary School has direct feedback on expectations and understandings of all members of the community and uses this feedback to fine tune policy and process on an ongoing basis.

Section 3 - Rights and Responsibilities

Ringwood Heights Primary School is a safe and inclusive school, where the whole school community feels welcome, supported, physically and emotionally secure. The school community works collaboratively to build a 'culture' where human rights and dignity are respected, and in doing so, the diversity of staff and students are respected. Every student and staff member of the school is encouraged to achieve their potential.

The school sees student wellbeing as a major priority. Programs, policies and management strategies all reflect this direction. It is evident in the following approaches:

Whole-school Responses to Well Being

Students' and teachers' expectations of each other are discussed at the beginning of the year and class expectations are developed that are consistent with these. A whole-school approach to student wellbeing includes strategies that help all members of the school community identify student needs and take action to meet these needs within the school programme and constantly review and monitor student progress.

Effective Behaviour Management

Behaviour management in the school is focused on promoting positive behaviours and early intervention strategies. Positive incentives are used at an individual and class level through our whole school culture. The teaching of social skills is embedded in our daily programmes. A "learning to learn" approach is embedded in our units of inquiry and encourages a collective response to values, classroom behaviour and positive peer relationships.

Playground supervision is thorough, with yard duty teachers informed of potential problems. Incidents are recorded and Learning Teams and leaders are able to identify and respond to any patterns of negative behaviour. The emphasis is always on positive student communication, repairing and rebuilding relationships and providing prevention rather than intervention strategies.

Positive Approach to Diversity

Ringwood Heights Primary School is an inclusive environment and diversity is acknowledged and celebrated. Our students understand that no matter what our background and what country we are from, we are all more similar than we are different.

Positive Student-Student Relationships

Ringwood Heights Primary is a medium sized school and because of the long term multi-age structure, our students have many opportunities to engage with students of varying ages and their families. Different year levels mix easily and comfortably at school, on weekends and holidays. Peer Support behaviours promote the whole school culture and are evidenced in our buddy support program, peer support program and student leadership opportunities. Students look after each other as a matter of course, and older students care for younger students. Students work in cooperative groups that are constantly re-organised to maximise every child's connections with other students.

Guiding principles to Rights and Responsibilities.

Every member of the school community has a right to fully participate in an educational environment that is safe, supportive and inclusive. Everyone deserves to be treated with respect and dignity.

Equal Opportunity

The Equal Opportunity Act 1995 sets out the types or grounds of discrimination that are unlawful and aims to promote community recognition and acceptance of the equality of men and women, and the equality of people of all races, regardless of their religious or political convictions, their impairments or their age.

Under the act it is unlawful to discriminate against a person on the basis of the following attributes:

- age
- breastfeeding
- gender identity
- impairment
- industrial activity
- lawful sexual activity
- marital status
- parental status or status as carer
- physical features
- political belief or activity
- pregnancy
- race
- religious belief or activity
- sex
- sexual orientation
- personal association (with a person who is identified by reference to any of the above attributes).

The Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006

The Charter sets out a list of 20 rights that reflect the following four basic principles:

- Freedom
- Respect
- Equality
- Dignity

The charter outlines a vision of human rights for all Victorians. The charter affirms that all people are born free and equal in dignity and rights. While the charter demands equality for all, it also emphasises the value of difference. The charter requires public authorities, including government schools and their employees, to act compatibly with human rights and to consider human rights when making decisions and delivering services.

- The right not to be discriminated against
- The right to privacy and reputation
- The right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief
- Cultural Rights

It is important to understand that with human rights comes a responsibility to respect the human rights of others.

All DET employees must act compatibly with the Charter and give proper consideration to human rights when making decisions. Everyone should:

- Encourage compliance with the Charter
- Support others to act compatibly with the Charter, and
- Respect and promote human rights

Students with disabilities

The Disability Standards for Education 2005 clarify and make more explicit the obligations on schools and the rights of students under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992. The standards cover enrolment, participation, curriculum development, student support services, and harassment and victimisation.

An education provider must make ‘reasonable adjustments’ to accommodate a student with disability. An adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist a student with disability to participate in education and training on the same basis as other students. An adjustment is reasonable if it does this while taking into account the student’s learning needs and balancing the interests of all parties affected, including those of the student with the disability, the education provider, staff and other students.

In determining whether an adjustment is reasonable, an education provider should take into account information about:

- the nature of the student’s disability
- his or her preferred adjustment
- any adjustments that have been provided previously
- any recommended or alternative adjustments.

This information might come from the student, an associate of the student, independent experts, or a combination of these people.

An education provider should ensure that the student, or an associate of the student, has timely information about the processes for determining whether the proposed adjustment would cause unjustifiable hardship to the provider. The provider should also ensure that these processes maintain the dignity, respect, privacy and confidentiality of the student and the associates of the student, consistent with the rights of the rest of the community.

The provider may consider all likely costs and benefits, both direct and indirect, for the provider, the student and any associates of the student, and any other persons in the learning or wider community, including:

- costs associated with additional staffing, providing special resources or modifying the curriculum
- costs resulting from the student's participation in the learning environment, including any adverse impact on learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers
- benefits of the student's participation in the learning environment, including positive learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers, and
- any financial incentives, such as subsidies or grants, available to the provider if the student participates.

The DDA and the Education Standards do not require changes to be made if this would impose unjustifiable hardship to a person or organisation.

Bullying and harassment

Definitions

Harassment is any verbal, physical or sexual conduct (including gestures) which is uninvited, unwelcome or offensive to a person.

Bullying is repeated oppression, physical or psychological, of a less powerful person by a more powerful person or group. (See Anti-Bullying Policy)

Cyberbullying is when someone is tormented, threatened, harassed, humiliated, embarrassed, or otherwise targeted by another child, pre-teen, or teen using the Internet, interactive and digital technologies or mobile phones. It has to be a minor on both sides, or at least have been instigated by a minor against another minor. – www.stopcyberbullying.org
(See Anti Cyber Bullying Policy)

It is important for the school to provide a safe and friendly environment for students and staff and to encourage care, courtesy and respect for others. All persons have a legal right to protection from harassment under the Commonwealth Sex Discrimination Act and the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act.

The effects of harassment, bullying or cyberbullying include:

- poor health – anxiety, depression
- lower self esteem
- reduced study performance
- missed classes, social withdrawal
- reduced career prospects

If a student sees another person being harassed or bullied they should tell the person that you witnessed the incident and advise them to report it to an appropriate person. However, if your friend is harassing another person, let them know that their behaviour is unacceptable.

Bystanders who do nothing to stop bullying may be contributing to the problem by providing an audience for the bully

Harassment is usually directed at a person because of their gender, race, creed or abilities. It can be subtle or explicit.

Subtle: (The most common)

They include:

- Offensive staring and leering.
- Unwanted comments about physical appearance and sexual preference.
- Racist or smutty comments or jokes.
- Questions about another's sexual activity.
- Persistent comments about a person's private life or family.
- Physical contact e.g. purposely brushing up against another's body.
- Offensive name calling.

Explicit: (obvious)

They include:

- Grabbing, aggressive hitting, pinching and shoving etc.
- Unwelcome patting, touching, embracing.
- Repeated requests for dates, especially after refusal.
- Offensive gestures, jokes, comments, letters, phone calls or e-mail.
- Sexually and/or racially provocative remarks.
- Displays of sexually graphic material– pornography.
- Requests for sexual favours.

Extreme forms of sexual harassment will lead to criminal prosecution.

Bullying can involve such things as:

- grabbing, aggressive staring, hitting, pinching, kicking, pushing and shoving.
- publicly excluding a person from your group
- taking or breaking a person's property
- knocking a person's books or belongings out of their hands or off their desk
- teasing a person because of their looks

Cyberbullying

Being involved in online spaces – either at home or at school - requires students to behave responsibly. This includes:

- the language you use and the things you say
- how you treat others
- respecting people's property (eg copyright)
- visiting appropriate places.

Behaving safely online means:

- protecting your own privacy and personal information
- selecting appropriate spaces to work and contribute
- protecting the privacy of others (sharing personal information or images only with permission)
- being proactive in letting someone know if there is something 'not quite right'. At home this would be a parent or carer, at school a teacher.

If you are being harassed or bullied you should:

- Tell the person you don't like what they are doing and you want them to stop.
- Discuss the matter with a student leader or a teacher/coordinator that you feel comfortable with.

Rights and Responsibilities of Students

Section 4 - Shared Expectations

Schools have a responsibility to provide an educational environment that ensures that all students are valued and cared for, feel they are part of the school, and can engage effectively in their learning and experience success.

The school's values are based on the Australian Government's nine values, for Australian schools, which are:

- Care and Compassion
Care for self and others
- Integrity
Act in accordance with principles of moral and ethical conduct, ensure consistency between words and deeds
- Doing Your Best
Seek to accomplish something worthy and admirable, try hard, pursue excellence
- Respect Treat others with consideration and regard, respect another person's point of view
- Fair Go
Pursue and protect the common good where all people are treated fairly for a just society
- Responsibility
Be accountable for one's own actions, resolve differences in constructive, non-violent and peaceful ways, contribute to society and to civic life, take care of the environment
- Freedom
Enjoy all the rights and privileges of Australian citizenship free from unnecessary interference or control, and stand up for the rights of others
- Understanding, Tolerance and Inclusion
Be aware of others and their cultures, accept diversity within a democratic society, being included and including others
- Honesty and Trustworthiness
Be honest, sincere and seek the truth

Ringwood Heights Primary School has developed a strong sense of community by valuing and encouraging the contributions of the whole school community. Community encompasses the students and their families and staff. We are committed to maintaining strong home/school partnerships.

The foundations of our school are based on the development of positive relationships between all members of the learning community. We provide a learning environment that is safe, supportive, caring and sets high expectations. An environment that empowers students to take responsibility for their behaviour and learning. Our main goal is for students to develop a life long love of learning. This will be enhanced by expectations based on a set of community agreed values. The values will acknowledge the rights and responsibilities of all members of our learning community.

The creation of our school values has involved all students, staff and representative parent groups. In implementing the values, all community members must take on the responsibility to "live" the expected behaviours.

Expectations of students are:

- To feel positive about themselves and the learning opportunities being offered to them.
- That students recognise the diversity of the student population and that each student has a unique contribution to make.
- That they accept responsibility for all aspects of their learning.
- To attend school regularly and on time to all classes.
- To treat all members of the school community with respect and dignity.
- To ask or request support in areas of learning and community with which they may be experiencing difficulty.
- To value school resources both individually and collectively.

Teachers and school staff should:

- Educate in line with Principles of Learning and Teaching
- Plan comprehensively across all Victorian Curriculum areas and develop appropriate and challenging curriculum so students experience success in all aspects of their learning
- Ensure all teaching practices are inclusive
- Make accessible educational provision for all students
- Create opportunities for real partnerships between parents/Carers and school staff
- Work in strong collaborative teams to develop and implement consistent and common instructional practices
- Value student input and the contributions they make to their own learning

Parents/Carers should:

- Take an active interest in the educational progress of their child/ren
- Engage in regular constructive communication with the school regarding their child's overall wellbeing
- Be expected to support the school in developing and maintaining a respectful learning environment
- Ensure their children are attending school regularly and on time
- Be actively involved in the three-way conferencing /reporting process

The Principal Class should:

- Provide positive leadership throughout the whole community
- Ensure, wherever possible, the school community has the necessary resources and equipment to assist them in the process of learning and teaching
- Ensure all teaching practices are inclusive
- Make accessible educational provision for all students
- Create opportunities for real partnerships between parents/Carers and school staff
- Ensure that all members of the community understand their roles and expectations

Section 5 – School Actions and Consequences

Student engagement, regular attendance and positive behaviours will be supported through relationship based whole-school and classroom practices, including:

- establishing predictable, fair and democratic classrooms and school environments
- ensuring student participation in the development of classroom and wholeschool expectations
- providing personalised learning programs where appropriate for individual students
- consistently acknowledging all students
- empowering students by creating multiple opportunities for them to take responsibility and be involved in decision-making
- providing physical environments conducive to positive behaviours and effective engagement in learning

Inappropriate behaviours, including irregular attendance, will be responded to through a staged response, including:

- understanding the student’s background and needs
- ensuring a clear understanding of expectations by both students and teachers
- providing consistent school and classroom environments
- scaffolding the student’s learning program.

Broader support strategies will include:

- involving and supporting the parents/carers,
- involving the student wellbeing coordinator, managed individual pathways or careers coordinators
- tutoring/peer tutoring
- mentoring and/or counselling
- convening student support group meetings – the student support group is an important component of the staged response for students facing difficulty with engagement, attendance or behaviour
- developing individualised flexible learning, behaviour or attendance plans
- providing broader educational programs, for example experiential learning, work education, camps/outdoor education/creative arts
- involving community support agencies.

Discipline procedures – suspension and expulsion

When considering suspension or expulsion, schools are required to refer to Ministerial Order No.625.

(Helpful guidelines and procedures are listed in section 4.3 of “Effective Schools are Engaging Schools - Student Engagement Policy Guidelines” . Appendices 12 to 18 of the guidelines provide flowcharts and proformas for use in suspension and expulsion procedures).

Corporal Punishment is prohibited in all Victorian schools. Corporal punishment must NOT be used at the School under any circumstances.

Suspension and expulsion are measures of last resort and may only be applied when the grounds for suspension and expulsion set out in the Engagement and Inclusion Guidance have been met. Suspension and expulsion can only be approved by the principal and our school will follow the processes for applying these disciplinary measures set out in the Student Engagement and Inclusion Guidance. Information on grounds and processes for suspension and expulsion that our school will follow are available here:
<http://www.education.vic.gov.au/school/principals/participation/Pages/discipline.aspx>

A student may only be excluded from school in situations where all other measures have been implemented without success or where an immediate suspension is the only appropriate course of action in response to the student's behaviour.

Consequences which may be used prior to suspension include:

- Withdrawal of privileges
- Withdrawal from class if a student's behaviour significantly interferes with the rights of other students to learn or the capacity of a teacher to teach a class, that student may be temporarily isolated from regular classroom activities or, in more severe cases, required to leave the classroom for a specified period of time.

Where appropriate, parents/carers should be informed of such withdrawals.

- Detention - teachers may require a student to finish school work that has not been completed in the regular classroom or to undertake additional or new work or duties at a reasonable time and place. No more than half the time allocated for any recess may be used for this work.

Where students are required to undertake school work after school, the time should not exceed forty-five minutes.

The principal should ensure that parents/carers are informed at least the day before the detention. Where family circumstances are such that the completion of after-school work would create undue hardship (for example, where students regularly supervise younger siblings in the absence of parents/carers), the school may choose to negotiate alternative disciplinary measures with parents/carers.

- Convening of a support group (See Effective Schools are Engaging Schools - Student Engagement Policy Guidelines for process required).
